2026 Kodaly Australia Conference

Adelaide, South Australia

28th September – 1st October 2026

About Us

Sing, Move, Thrive: A Kodály Journey for Every Learner

Join us in Adelaide, South Australia from 28 September – 1 October 2026 for the Kodály Australia National Conference. With the inspiring theme 'Sing, Move, Thrive: A Kodály Journey for Every Learner', this event will bring together educators, musicians, and practitioners from across the country to explore the transformative power of music education through the Kodály philosophy.

Across four dynamic days, participants will engage with leading national and international presenters, hands-on workshops, thought-provoking keynotes, and vibrant performances. Whether you're an experienced educator or new to the Kodály approach, this conference offers rich opportunities to learn, connect, and grow in a supportive community.

Why Sponsor the Kodály Australia National Conference?

Partnering with the Kodály Australia National Conference 2026 connects your organisation with a highly engaged national audience of music educators, leaders, and decision-makers who are passionate about high-quality, inclusive music education.

Sponsorship provides direct access to hundreds of delegates working across early childhood, primary, secondary, instrumental, community and tertiary education, many of whom influence purchasing decisions, program design, and professional learning priorities within their schools, organisations and networks.

By sponsoring this conference, you align your brand with excellence, innovation, inclusion, and lifelong music learning, while building meaningful relationships within a committed and values-driven education community.

Meet Our Team
